FLEX Literacy with StudySync Provides Individualized ELA Instruction for All

Engaging digital features enrich reading expertise, one student at a time

SRA FLEX Literacy and StudySync fuse instruction, practice, assessment, and review to provide comprehensive reading and language arts instruction for all Secondary school teens.

FLEX Literacy is implemented widely as a digital supplement in 1:1 or 1:2 device classrooms to complement StudySync's robust core ELA instruction.

For StudySync students who are at-risk of failure, or who have already fallen behind, FLEX Literacy's digital experience remediates the skills of struggling readers to bring them up to grade level.

Future-ready schools apply the innovative combination of FLEX Literacy with StudySync to empower teachers to deliver effective instruction, and afford personalized learning for each student, no matter where they fall on the learning continuum.

FLEX Literacy and StudySync together offer various advanced features, including:

- Skills-based instruction to meet the specific needs of students, classrooms, and districts
- Scaffolded support for all levels of learners
- Interactive, standards-based digital assignments
- Flexible instructional models that allow for individualized learning

Together, both FLEX Literacy and StudySync provide students with a variety of strategies to accelerate reading comprehension and confidence.
